

DON SULLENS

Don Sullens has been with Chatham Emergency Management Agency (CEMA) since 2007. He currently is responsible for coordinating and overseeing CEMA's Emergency Operations Section.

Prior to coming to CEMA, Mr. Sullens served five years with the Chatham County Police Department which transitioned to the Savannah Chatham Metropolitan Police Department.

Mr. Sullens is a retired US Army Chief Warrant Officer who's 23 year military career included tours of duty with: V & VII US Corps in Europe, 1st Ranger Battalion here in Savannah, 75th Ranger Regiment at Fort Benning; 3rd Infantry Division at Fort Stewart, and 82nd Airborne Division in North Carolina.

Mr. Sullens is a Georgia Certified Emergency Manager.