

NELL HART

Nell Hart, a native of Candler County but she grew up in the small town of Metter, Georgia located seventy-five miles west of Savannah, Georgia. She is the fourth child of twelve children: seven girls and five boys.

Ms. Hart graduated with honors in 1970 from Lillian Street Elementary and High School. After graduating from high school she received further education through Albany State College and pursued a Bachelor's Degree in Biology with an emphasis in Science Education. She also attended Savannah State University, Savannah Technical College and the International College of Correspondences.

While a student at Albany State College, she came to Chatham County during college break seeking summer employment. In 1982, she moved to Chatham County with a new career and transition in life. In 1985, she married her best-friend and sweet-heart Marion (now deceased). In the year of 1986, her beloved son (Marlin) was born.

Prior to joining Chatham Emergency Management Agency, she worked as a Temp with the Chatham County Tag Office during the years of 1984 -1985. She later worked as a Clerk and advanced to Senior Clerk with the Chatham County Sheriff's Department from May, 1985 to August, 1988.

As a person dedicated to professional growth and business networking, she supports and serves thousands of internal clients, businesses and industries. Ms. Hart brings tremendous talent to the development of CEMA's disaster preparedness publications and designs. She periodically attends various emergency management training in and outside of the agency.

Currently Ms. Hart is the Administrative Assistant for CEMA and she has been an employee with the agency since August of 1988 when CEMA was known as Chatham County Civil Defense.

Her hobbies include creating cards, programs, book markers and anything having to do with creativity. She truly loves to display the love of Christ and enjoys meeting people.